CASE STUDY

Daniel Watson, Aster Horses

Background: Daniel Watson runs Aster Horses, a dressage training centre in Kent. Daniel came to us seeking specialist advice to support new ideas after meeting Lucie Hammond at a presentation at Hartpury.

How we helped: We worked with Daniel to take the business apart and fully restructure, taking into consideration his growth aspirations.

Since coming on board, the business has been able to grow from a 'small' to medium-sized business very quickly and can now focus on what they do best. They have achieved the finance they were looking for to build an indoor arena.
